This charming one-story 1920's home features two bedrooms plus one and a half bathrooms. The inviting living area boasts an entry foyer and large windows, allowing for plenty of natural light. The kitchen, with its retro charm, offers ample space for meal preparation and gatherings in addition to the back entry that could be utilized as a separate dining area. There are custom built-ins along with an office area including a desk and storage closet allowing this area to serve as a bonus room. Both bedrooms share a vintage style bathroom with a jade sink and tub. There is a separate laundry area with a half bath as well as a partial basement with a couple petitioned rooms offering great storage or possible additional living space. Outdoors the 12'x24' shed has been recently covered in metal and the location is walking distance to most amenities within the village of Cody!
