This gorgeous home on over 5 acres will capture your heart! - Harkening to grander days, this gorgeous 1910 Victorian home on over 5 acres will capture your heart! As you approach the home the beautiful front porch welcomes with pillars and the promise of something very special inside. Owner pride and love absolutely shine both inside and out. Natural light streams through every room of this home and your eyes are drawn to the beauty of every charming little detail. You feel the warmth of the fireplace, and the bay window full of cushions make you smile as you take in the beautiful open floor plan dining/living room. The thoughtfully designed kitchen offers custom cupboards with lots of little extras and a perfect breakfast area that opens onto an enclosed back patio. A large back porch greets you as you enter from the attached 2 car garage or the backyard. And a half bath is conveniently located just off the entry. The main floor offers an ensuite bedroom with full bath. On the 2nd floor, 4 beautiful bedrooms are located off of a large central hall with a darling seating area, as well as a full bathroom. 2 of the bedrooms offer bathroom-ettes. The home has a nice unfinished basement for storage and utilities, as well as a separate storm shelter. The home is situated on an expansive yard with wandering trails, and a separate well for all of your watering needs. Heading out back you have over 5 acres of land with Bone Creek trickling through, offering the perfect place to roam, keep some animals, and even play in the creek! There is also a separate single car garage, a barn building, and a shelter building! This home was formerly a bed & breakfast and is a perfect place to live your dreams. Come take a look and see if this gorgeous place captures as much of your heart as it did mine!
