This cozy and charming 1920's home harmoniously combines vintage charm with modern updates. The home exudes warmth from the moment you arrive inside the spacious living room with natural light. The updated kitchen features sleek cabinetry, including appliances, and is perfect for both cooking and entertaining. This adorable home features two bedrooms: a larger bedroom that serves as a peaceful retreat and a smaller bedroom that is perfect for guest or a home office. The tastefully updated bathroom features a double vanity and the laundry area is conveniently nearby. The full unfinished basement offers great storage and many possibilities for additional living space. Outside, there is a detached garage close by and the double lot provides potential for expansion, gardening, and various outdoor activities.
